CGC Celebrates Chinese New Year with House of Joy

PUCHONG, 20 February – Credit Guarantee Corporation Malaysia (CGC) celebrated over 40 underprivileged children from the House of Joy, Puchong, Selangor at a Chinese New Year dinner on Friday 18 February 2019. The celebration at MTREE Hotel in Puchong kicks-off CGC Corporate Responsibility Programme for the year, and was attended by CGC Management.

Children from House of Joy enjoyed tossing of the “Yee Sang”, a sumptuous buffet spread and were entertained to a magic show, performance and lion dance performance. The guests and children were treated to Mandarin oranges and fortune cookies. CGC also presented the Home with a token of contribution and Ang Pows for the children.

Speaking at the dinner, Leong said, “We are pleased to celebrate the rich cultures of the diverse communities. Today’s celebration echoes our ongoing commitment in caring for our societies, particularly the underprivileged.”

Meanwhile, Lee thanked CGC for hosting the Home and its children. “We truly appreciate the time, willingness and effort by CGC in organising this Chinese New Year programme for our children. The children are happy and this is a good morale booster for them,” said Lee.

House of Joy - Home for the Children was established in 1992 and was founded by Mr. Tang Chee Sing and Madam Lee Ching Mun. The Home currently accommodates over 60 underprivileged children, aged between one (1) to 18 years old. Lee manages the day-to-day operations of the Home, assisted by three (3) caretakers. House of Joy also provides shelter to over 20 residents with learning disabilities.

CGC through its Corporate Responsibility programmes reaches out to the underprivileged especially during festivities to ensure that they too do not miss out on the celebration. CGC believes in empowering communities, a key component in unity building and national development.
