CGC Malaysia Berhad Jets East to Celebrate Hari Gawai with Underprivileged Families

KUCHING, 14 June - In conjunction with the Hari Gawai festival, Credit Guarantee Corporation Malaysia Berhad (CGC) took on a slightly different humanitarian approach in organising its annual Corporate Responsibility (CR) programme this year.

CGC's Chief Corporate Officer, Rahim Raduan and Vice President of Corporate Communications, Mohana Arumugam; together with members from the Kuching branch led by its Branch Manager, Stellarose Ak Nelson, joined hands with the local association - Hope Place, to spread cheer, hope and basic necessities to a few identified underprivileged families that resided in the rural areas of here in Kuching.

Among the donated items were rice packets, sugar, salt, cooking oil, noodles, adult diapers, special milk powders (Ensure Gold & Enercal Plus).

CGC also contributed medical supplies in terms of Stoma Bags and Stoma Bag Wafers as it was found that one of them had recently undergone surgery for colon cancer and was in dire need of the said bags.

"We are truly blessed to be able to extend hope, cheers and assistance to the underprivileged community segment from Sarawak; especially during its major festival - Hari Gawai. We are grateful to be able to team up with Hope Place Association in successfully carrying out this mission," remarked Rahim Raduan.

A contribution of RM 10,000 was made to the association at the end of the programme, in support of the association's noble cause.

CGC has throughout the years, organised various CR programmes in conjunction with the major festivals of the nation, as a means of paying respect to the country's diverse culture and at the same time, in support of the various underprivileged community segments of the country.
